PASTOR'S MESSAGE: JOHN THE BAPTIST

John the Baptist is among the most complex figures in the Bible. The circumstances of his life were unusual. His parents (Zechariah and Elizabeth) were considered too old to have a child.. As the son of a Priest, the Jewish Law required he become one as well. Yet, God called him to be a prophet. In that role, he was a bridge between the Hebrew Scriptures (Old Testament) and Christian Scriptures (New Testament). Like the prophets of the past he boldly called people to conversion, denounced religious hypocrisy and pointed towards a future where God's Kingdom would be established. He was fearless in condemning Herod Antipas when he married his brother Phillip's wife Herodias: an action which would cost him his life. Yet, John was also very human. When the Messiah he predicted and longed for arrived, he likely experienced doubts. Was this the one sent by God? But the Romans still occupied Israel. The religious and political elites were corrupt. Where was the radical change which would establish God's Kingdom on earth? Christ's response indicated the signs (the blind see, the deaf hear) were subtle and likely to be overlooked except by those who were open to them. It is easy to relate to John when our expectations aren't met. What are our expectations for this Christmas Season? They may not be met in ways we expect. Yet, if we are open to them, God may touch us in profound ways which enable us to see and hear what is really important about this time of year.
